PRACTICE EXPERIENCE

Elana G. Faniel is an experienced litigation and transactional attorney. She has litigated commercial, intellectual property, and personal injury cases. She has also served as outside general counsel to small businesses and represented clients in commercial transactions. Prior to joining Taylor Nelson, Elana's practice focused on protecting, enforcing, and exploiting her clients' intellectual property assets.

Elana graduated from Florida State University with a bachelor's degree in Criminology, and a minor in Apparel Construction and Design. Elana graduated from the Howard University School of Law, and served as a Senior Editor of the Howard Law Journal. While in law school, Elana gained valuable civil litigation experience while working as a law clerk at the D.C. Office of Administrative Hearings, and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia.

Elana lives in the Tampa Bay area, and loves spending time with her family, traveling, and cheering on the Florida State Seminoles.
