PRACTICE EXPERIENCE

Kevin S. Brady is a legal professional with experience working in private practice and public service. Specifically, Kevin interned at and worked on behalf of White and Williams LLP in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Additionally, Kevin served in the Clerk's Office for the Indiana Supreme Court, predominantly assisting pro se litigants with their appeals before the Indiana Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, and Tax Court.

Kevin then attended Valparaiso University Law School in Valparaiso, Indiana, 45 minutes southeast of Chicago. During law school, Kevin completed two judicial clerkships and served as an intern at The Pentagon for the United States Air Force. After law school, Kevin worked in private practice on insurance coverage matters and served as a law clerk and chambers administrator for a judge on the Michigan Court of Appeals.

Before joining Taylor Nelson, Kevin served as a research attorney for Macomb County, Michigan trial court judges. While there, Kevin drafted memoranda, opinions, and orders in response to legal issues presented in civil, criminal, and domestic cases.

Kevin lives in the Tampa Bay area, and loves spending time with his family and supporting the Michigan Wolverines football team and Detroit Lions.
