PRACTICE EXPERIENCE

Mercy Roberg is an associate attorney serving in the firm's litigation and corporate practice groups. Prior to joining Taylor Nelson, Mercy's practice consisted of lead litigation counsel for a Florida legal aid firm where she also served as director of operations for the firm.

Through her experience, Mercy provides a unique understanding of issues facing clients from an operational standpoint to trial. Mercy has served as counsel in over two hundred mediations and has a keen eye for what helps clients reach their goals.

Mercy received her J.D. from Stetson University College of Law. She received her undergraduate degree and Masters degree from the University of Florida.

Mercy lives in the Tampa Bay area with her family and in her free time enjoys running half-marathons, hiking the Appalachian Trail, participating in pro bono work, and traveling in Central and South America.
